

Saturday 14th in Ordinary Time

Gospel text (Mt 10,24-33): Jesus said to his apostles, «If the head of the family has been called Beelzebul, how much more the members of the family! So, do not be afraid of them. There is nothing covered that will not be uncovered, and nothing hidden that will not be made known».

Today we need this comfort of Jesus: God's children are always before the attentive look of the Lord. If we suffer some incomprehension, or mockery, or injustice for God's sake, we should know that nothing escapes His vision. If we are sometimes struck by the evil that is committed in this world, let us trust in the gaze of God who sees everything: nothing is hidden from His eyes!

- Would you like to be able to see" as God? That is where the virtue of faith goes!
