

Sunday 22nd (C) in Ordinary Time

Gospel text (Lk 14,1.7-14): Jesus then told a parable to the guests, for He had noticed how they tried to take the places of honor. And He said, «When you are invited to a wedding party, do not choose the best seat. It may happen that someone more important than you has been invited, and your host, who invited both of you, will come and say to you: ‘Please give this person your place’. What shame is yours when you take the lowest seat!...».

Today Jesus sends us a call to humility. In life, it is important to be where you have to be (do not be a show-off). Otherwise, life itself will relocate us ...

- It is said that a great business would be to buy the souls for what they are worth and sell them for what they think they are worth. Would we do "business" with you?
