

Sunday 27th (B) in Ordinary Time

Gospel text (Mk 10,2-16): Some Pharisees came and put him to the test with this question, «Is it right for a husband to divorce his wife?».

Today is Family Day. A group of Jewish people -the Pharisees- surrounds Jesus and asks Him whether parents can get divorced. Jesus says no, because since the beginning God created man and woman to create a family and a home.

–What do children need the most at home? A climate of love among their parents. Hopefully every child in this world receives the hug of his or her parents' love, a hug that never ends!
