

Sunday 3th (A) of Advent

Gospel text (Mt 11,2-11): «I send my messenger ahead of you to prepare the way before you».

Today, Jesus Christ praises John the Baptist. John did penance and praying in the desert. Then he preached the conversion to the Jews by saying that the Messiah-Savior had already arrived. Besides, Jesus also congratulated the Baptist for his determination and fidelity: «What did you go out into the wilderness to see? » «A reed swayed by the wind? ».

-There are men who are like these reeds that appears by the road: they lean to one side or the other as the wind blows. Are you one of those? Remember: Christ is always in fashion!
