

Wednesday of the Third Week of Easter

Gospel text (Jn 6:35-40): "Whoever comes to me will never hunger"

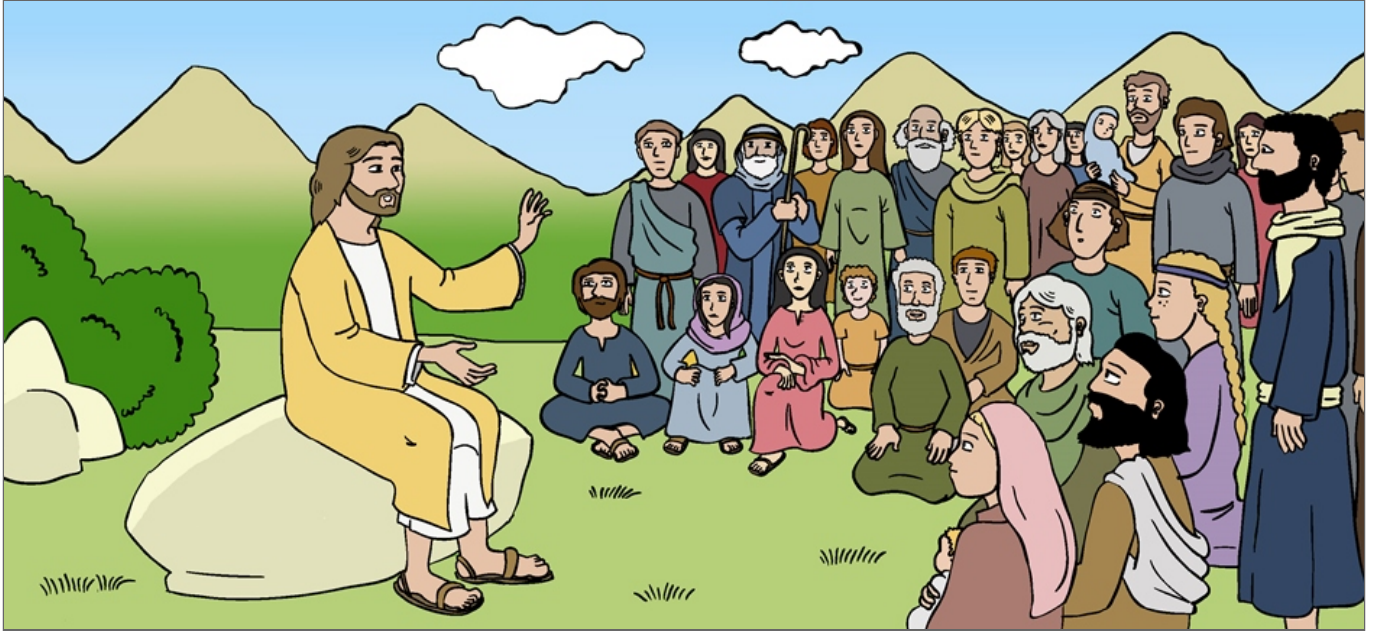

Illustration: Francesc Badia

Today Jesus says again that He is the “Bread of Life”. God is our creator and redeemer: if we are his friends, we don’t have to fear and we will have peace. We will even be happy if we have some sufferings, because we will be reminded that Christ suffered for loving us and in order to carry us to Heaven.

—The eternal life with Jesus and our beloved relatives, that is, Heaven: at the end of life this will be the only thing that matters.