

Monday of the Fourth Week of Easter

Gospel text ( Jn 10:1-10): «He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out».

Illustration: + Mr. Josep Lluís Martínez i Picañol (Picanyol)

Today, again, Jesus Christ tells us that God is our Father. And like all dads in this life, He calls us all by our own name. Before Him we are not just one more of the bunch. In addition, Jesus warns us of false shepherds: they are those who do not tell us the truth nor give us a good example. But Jesus defends us from the "wolves".

- During our life we will find thieves and robbers: we shall not listen to them. -
Jesus, I want to hear you; You are the gate of Heaven.