

Wednesday of the Fourth Week of Easter

Gospel text (Jn 12:44-50): «Whoever sees me sees the one who sent me».

Illustration: Francesc Badia

Today, Jesus introduces us in the intimacy of the Holy Trinity. God is not a lonely being; He is since always as a family, a community of persons in the same life: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The Father has sent his eternal Son to earth to cure humanity that has been weakened by sin. The son made man is Jesus of Nazareth: He comes from the Father!

- Who believes in Jesus believes in the Father. Thank you, Jesus for you have told me that God is my Father in Heaven.