

Sunday 5th (A) of Easter

Gospel text (Jn 14,1-12): «If you know me, you will know the Father also».

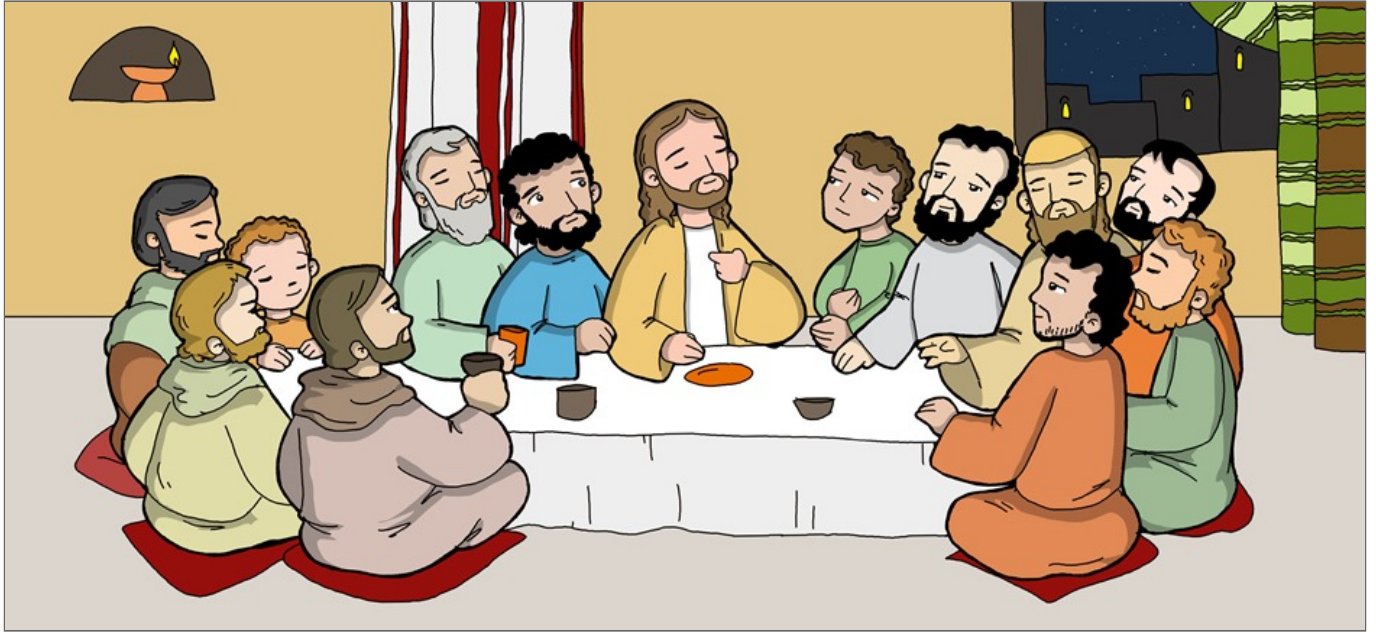

Illustration: Pili Piñero

Today we are listening once more to Jesus' farewell words. He is asking us to believe in Him and to let our heart be serene. Jesus Christ repeats again that He is God together with the Father, to Whom He will always be united: - "Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father ..."

— The Lord is my "Way" to go to the Father. Along with Jesus I will be able to do great and important things: to have a family; to learn a job; to be a good friend of my friends; to fight for saintliness and go to Heaven...