

Monday of the Fifth Week of Easter

Today, Jesus Christ tells us two very important things. The first one: if I want to love the Lord, I must abide by the Commandments of the Law of God. If I do, then something very great will happen: God will come to me and will dwell in my heart.

In addition, Jesus announces that from Heaven, the Father and He will send us Their Love, the Holy Spirit. God the Holy Spirit is the Consoler because He lives inside us and helps us to understand the teachings of Jesus.

— To open your heart to God, you just have to tell him: -Jesus, come to me!
