

Sunday 6th (A) of Easter

Gospel text (Jn 14,15-21): «A little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me».

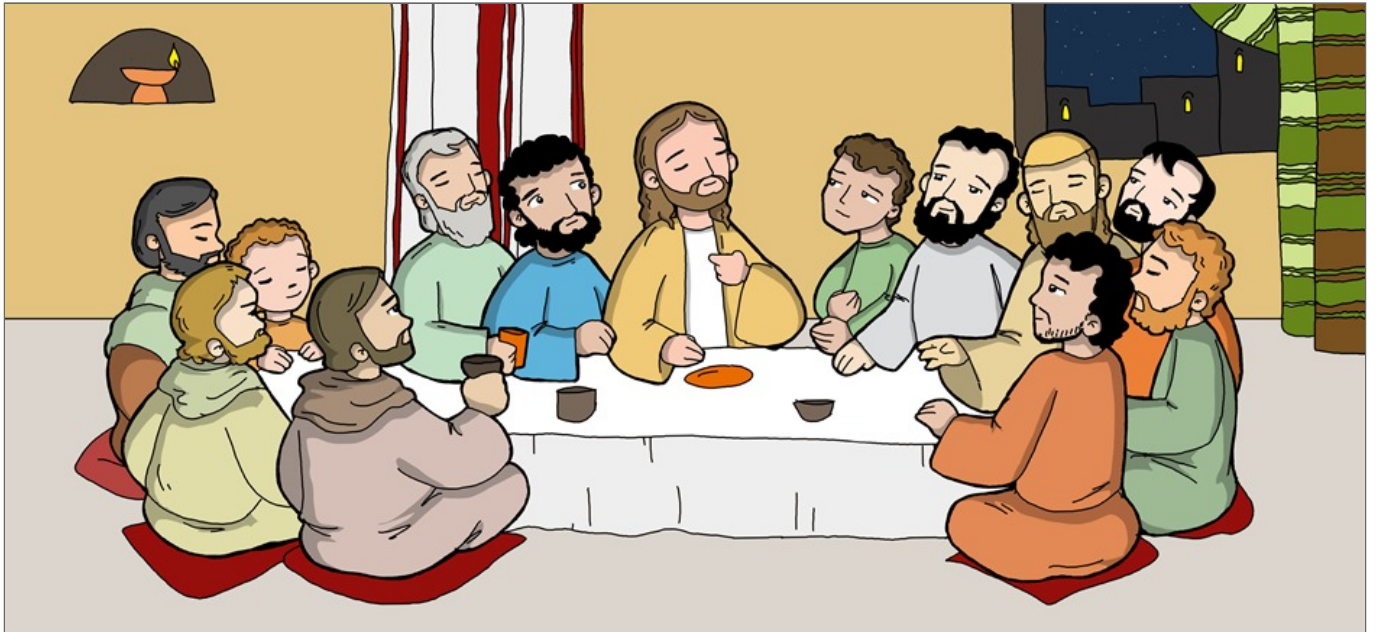

Illustration: Pili Piñero

Today Jesus' words sound like an eminent farewell. Indeed, in some days we will celebrate of our Lord's Ascension into Heaven. Ascension? Yes. A beautiful mystery: Jesus will solemnly enter in Body and Spirit into Heaven, the house of his Father-God. It will be the first time that a human body is received in Heaven. Nevertheless, thanks to our faith we will keep on "seeing him".

- But Jesus will not leave us orphans. As his Ascension approaches He tells us about the Holy Spirit. Do you know who it is? Jesus will explain it to us in the upcoming days.