Today, shortly before his Ascension, Jesus warns us about sadness: he wants us to be happy by remaining united to God. On the day of the Ascension to heaven, Jesus Christ will not go away, as if he were on another planet. He will continue among us. His Body, which died and rose again, is now divinized ...

-The Humanity of Jesus has experienced a "leap of quality" living fully as God. Our happiness is total! -Jesus, since you are in heaven, I know that you are always by my side ... and inside me!
