Today finally comes the Lord's Ascension. We would like to live with Jesus like the people of his time. But it should make us happy that Jesus returns to His "Home", to the place from where He came down to save us. He is there with the Father and the Holy Spirit. Jesus, with his risen body, is received in the holy world. Saint Joseph, the angels and all the saints were waiting for Him...

- What a joy! Everyone – God, the angels and saints- reunited forever and united in an eternal love. And they are all in communion with us!
