

Pentecost Sunday

Gospel text (Jn 20,19-23): He breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the holy Spirit.

Illustration: Fr. Miguel Rodríguez Ugalde (Miroug)

Today we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit. Who is He? Jesus Christ spoke much of the Spirit of Truth. Before ascending to Heaven He promised us that His Father and Himself would send Him to us for our comfort. The love between the Father and the Son is so great that from Them emanates an Infinite Love, just like another Divine Person.

—The Holy Spirit is a Person, divine as the Father and the Son. Speak to him: "God the Holy Spirit, I ask you for light to behave well and strength to be constant in good things".