

Sunday 4th (C) of Lent

Gospel text (Lk 15,1-3.11-32): The Pharisees and the scribes frowned at this, mut-tering: «This man welcomes sinners and eats with them». So Jesus told them this parable: «There was a man with two sons. The younger...».

Today we already know where that "prodigal son" is going to stop ... He has despised his father by squandering the inheritance! And when he has nothing left, everyone ignores him ... Everyone disappears! It is the consequence of "entertaining" with freedom instead of "surrendering".

-The older brother: he has stayed home, but he does not love the father either. He values more the lost money than the returned brother ... The good father embraces the youngest son and raises the eyes of the older one: «Everything that is mine is also yours». This is God!
