

Wednesday of the Eleventh Week in Ordinary Time

Gospel text (Mt 6,1-6.16-18): Jesus said to his disciples, «Be careful not to make a show of your righteousness before people. If you do so, you do not gain anything from your Father in heaven».

Today Jesus asks us to do our works, above all, to please the Father. The most beautiful reason to live is to please God. Should we triumph in life? Yes, but first of all do it for God. The admiration of men for you will fade quickly with the passage of time; The admiration of God for you is eternal.

- Hopefully God will speak of you saying, " This is my beloved Son in whom I am pleased. "
