

Thursday of the Sixteenth Week in Ordinary Time

Gospel text (Mt 13,10-17): «For the one who has, will be given more and he will have in abundance. But the one who does not have will be deprived of even what he has. That is why I speak to them in parables, because they look and do not see; they hear, but they do not listen or understand».

Today Jesus' words sound somewhat mysterious. But they are very precise: God sows generously. If the heart responds, then it experiences more hunger for God and receives even more ... But if the heart is closed (without deep "grooves") or full of rocks, then...

- Many souls have had few opportunities in life. God speaks to them gently, with parables, with the things of our earth. Others -perhaps you- have received more and Jesus can speak to us more directly. How lucky, are not we?
