

Sunday 2nd (A) in Ordinary Time

Gospel text (Jn 1,29-34): The next day John saw Jesus coming towards him and said, «There is the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world(...). I have seen! and I declare that this is the Chosen One of God».

It is so wonderful what we discover today in the Reading: we can follow John the Baptist as he introduces Jesus to us boldly, without any fear. John tells us that Jesus is coming to us from Heaven (“he existed, before I came to being”). This statement is indeed an important one: only God can save us and promise us life eternal.

- We are so thankful for the courage shown by the true witnesses of God: no hesitation, things are put clear. Witnesses to God! You, and me too, we want to be like them.
