

Tuesday of the Twenty-first Week in Ordinary Time

Gospel text (Mt 23:23-26): Jesus said: "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites. You pay tithes of mint and dill and cummin, and have neglected the weightier things of the law: judgment and mercy and fidelity."

Today we continue listening to the complaints of Jesus Christ because the scribes and Pharisees were making souls suffer. Many rules and little understanding with people! Lots of things and little heart! For this reason, the heart of Jesus "bursts".

-Lord, I don't want to be blind, don't let me go my way, making up religion to my liking. Jesus, take me your way!
