

Tuesday of the Twenty-second Week in Ordinary Time

Gospel text (Lk 4,31-37): Jesus went down to Capernaum, a town of Galilee, and began teaching the people at the sabbath meetings. They were astonished at the way He taught them, for his word was spoken with authority.

Illustration: Pili Piñero

Today Jesus goes to the synagogue. He -who is the Lord, who is God- every Sabbath went to the synagogue to hear the Holy Scripture and to pray. Every Saturday! God himself, in the person of Jesus, behaves like a Man before God. We needed this example! We can no longer say that we do not know what to do to find God. He came in to stay: in the Eucharist!

—The Jews said: «What words these are! With authority and power He gives orders to the impure spirits and they come out! » How many problems can we overcome by going to the house of God!