

Sunday 23rd (A) in Ordinary Time

Gospel text (Mt 18,15-20): Jesus said to his disciples, «If your brother or sister has sinned against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are in private, and if he listens to you, you have won your brother».

Today Jesus speaks to us about fraternity. No one should go alone in life, and least of all we Christians. This is why we must help ourselves, by having even the courage to gently correct those who are wrong and/or accepting them to correct us.

"They say that "union means strength." But imagine if, in addition, "where there are two or three gathered in my name, there I am [Jesus]". By having Him in the "team", we will get from His Father everything we may ask for.
