

Monday of the Twenty-third Week in Ordinary Time

Gospel text (Lk 6,6-11): On another Sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and began teaching. There was a man with a paralyzed right hand and the teachers of the Law and the Pharisees watched him: Would Jesus heal the man on the Sabbath? If He did, they could accuse him...

Today we are surprised watching people seeking how to accuse Jesus. Accuse God! Isn't it ridiculous? So it happened 21 centuries ago and it happens these days. What a fixation trying to put God on the ropes!

- Do you know what happens to the followers of this "sport"? "But they were furious and began to discuss with one another how they could deal with Jesus". They go blind and in the end they don't know what to do with God! Shameful!
