

Wednesday 2nd in Ordinary Time

Gospel text (Mk 3,1-6): Again Jesus entered the synagogue. A man who had a paralyzed hand was there and some people watched Jesus: Would he heal the man on the sabbath? If he did they could accuse him.

Illustration: Francesc Badia

Today we feel hurt at the malice of those Pharisees: they adapted religion to their particular opinions, instead of asking themselves what does that God wants. Their hearts did not rejoice with Jesus' miracle: He cured a man with a paralysed hand. But as he did on Saturday, they became angry.

— Does it not look ridiculous to you? The worship of God is genuine if it drives me to love my Neighbour.