

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

Gospel text (Mk 9,30-37): They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house, Jesus asked them, «What were you discussing on the way?». But they did not answer because they had been arguing about who was the greatest.

Today Jesus Christ announces, for the first time, His passion, death and resurrection. Did his disciples comprehend Him? It does not seem so! After the crucifixion they did not expect Jesus' resurrection. They had not heard Him! Even though the Lord had been repeating it, time and again.

-How come that we do not "listen" to what God is telling us? Because we are distracted by calculating and discussing who is the bigger, or the more important, or the more...
