Today Jesus Christ keeps on talking to the priests and elders of the Temple. He admonishes them for their lack of faith. They do not trust Jesus Christ; they do not believe Jesus is can be God made man to save us.

John the Baptist had cautioned that Jesus the Messiah had already arrived. Besides, Jesus performed miracles and preached a much sanctified teaching..., but they do not want to listen to him or believe him. They do not want to!

-Today, your parents take John's place: they pray for you, they talk to you about Jesus, they help you to pray. Do you follow their advice?
