

Sunday 34th in Ordinary Time: Christ the King (A)

Gospel text (Mt 25,31-46): «When the Son of Man comes in his glory with all his angels, He will sit on the throne of his Glory. All the nations will be brought before him, and as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, so will He do with them...».

Today, Jesus shows us that the meaning of royalty is service to others. He affirmed Himself that he was Master and Lord, and also that he was King, but he exercised his royalty by washing feet and shedding his Blood. Jesus Christ reigns first from a humble cradle (a manger!) And later from a very uncomfortable throne (the Cross!).

- There is the royalty of Christ: the triumph of love. In the Final Judgment the last word will have the love - or the “lack of love” - of each one. Guaranteed by Jesus Christ!
