

First Sunday of Advent (C)

Gospel text (Lk 21:25-28.34-36): “Beware that your hearts do not become drowsy from carousing and drunkenness and the anxieties of daily life.”

Illustration: Francesc Badia

Today we recall that Jesus-God came to Earth 2000 years ago: On Christmas Day we celebrate His birth. But Jesus also comes to us now, every day: when we pray, when we receive Communion... God lives with us!, and this is the most important of our lives.

We must pray and be good to feel that Jesus is on our side: Do you pray?, Do you talk to him?