

Sunday 3th (C) of Advent

Gospel text (Lk 3,10-18): The people asked John, «What are we to do?».

Today we are getting close to Christmas day. And we also make ourselves the same question: what should we do? The Baptist asked people to act with justice. That means that we must fulfill our commitments and our duties: study, reach in time, lend things, avoid arguments, not be capricious and accept what we have, work at home without having to be asked again and again ...

-The place of Jesus' birth was not comfortable for the Virgin Mary. But St. Joseph helped her a lot. And you?
