

Wednesday 3th of Advent

Gospel text (Lk 7,19-23): The disciples of John gave him all this news. So he called two of them and sent them to the Lord with this message, «Are you the one we are expecting, or should we wait for another?».

Illustration: Francesc Badia

Today we are surprised by John's question. For he actually knows that Jesus is the Messiah: he had baptized Him and had indicated him as the Savior. But now the Baptist wants his followers to go to Jesus Christ. It is as if he says: -I am only the precursor; He is the Savior. Go to Him and ask Him directly, stay with Him...

--Your parents, your catechist... speak with you about Jesus. But you yourself have to go to Him and remain with Him.