Today, while contemplating Jesus' divine beauty, Simon Peter spontaneously expresses his happiness: "How well we are here!" Of course, with Jesus Christ one is always well: there is no greater source of peace and happiness. But ... let us hear what the Father of Heaven said to the apostles: "This is my Son whom I love; with Him I am well pleased. Listen to him." Listen to him!

- Today and every day we can listen to Jesus. Go before the tabernacle, be silent, kneel down and you will hear him.
